NOTE : (1) "Corrupt practice" means offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything any favour in cash or in kind or an act of influencing the action of a public servant in the procurement process or in executing the contract.

(2) "Fraudulent practice" means misrepresentation of facts in order to influence the procurement process or execution of the contract to the detriment of the Purchaser, and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after submission of the bids) designed to establish Bid prices at artificial or non-competitive levels and/or to deprive the Purchaser of the benefits of free and open competition.

14.3 If the Purchaser terminates the Contract in whole or in part, the Purchaser shall have the right to procure, upon such terms and in such manner as he deems fit and appropriate, the goods or Services similar to those undelivered, and the supplier shall be liable to the Purchaser for making good of the loss if any incurred in the process by the Purchaser any excess costs for such procurement of goods and/or services. However, the Supplier shall continue the performance of the Contract to the extent not terminated.

15. Termination of Contract for insolvency: The Purchaser may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the supplier if the Purchaser reasonably finds at any point of time during the continuation of the period of contract that the supplier has become bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. Termination of the contract in such a situation will be without compensation to the Supplier, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy, which has accrued thereafter to the Purchaser.

16. Termination of Contract for Violation: The Purchaser, by issuing a written notice to the supplier, may at any point of time terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, if the Purchaser reasonably finds that the supplier has violated one or more terms or conditions of the Agreement or has engaged in influencing any of the officials or persons concerned with the implementation of the scheme. The supplier shall not be entitled to any compensation for such termination mid-way but he shall remain entitled to the amount proportionate to the works done until termination of the Contract.

17. Award of contract:

17.1 The Purchaser reserves the right to accept or reject any or all the tenders and to cancel the bidding process as well as to reject all quotations at any time prior to the award of the contract with reasons to be recorded in writing.

17.2 The Purchaser shall inform about the award of the contract to the bidder whose tender the Purchaser accepts. The terms and conditions of the accepted offer shall be incorporated in the purchase order.

17.3 Payment of the suppliers' bills shall be made after delivery of the goods in satisfactory condition and confirmation report from the concerned Officers of the District regarding the receipt of the goods in good and satisfactory condition and subject to release of F.O.C. by the Government.
